From the V.P. Corner

So who wins the pool?

Cousin Nick and I loaded up the Old Yellow 33 coupe and headed South and East in search of someone who has something "Mopar-ish" to trade.

We would journey night and day in the quest. Drive long hours, often without water or meals. O.K. well maybe it wasn't exactly like that.

We did load up the Yellow 33 coupe, and on Feb 22, headed South and East, but we had plans to meet up with the potential new owner of my 33 in Pecos Texas.

Being a bona-fide crazed Mopar person, or maybe just a crazed person, I do periodic online searches to see what Mopars are for sale. Originally I started doing that so I could maybe follow where my Red 33 Mopar coupe went. Once in awhile there would be something interesting. So that's kinda how it happened.

Did a search to see what was out there, found a Plymouth Fat Fender that was available for trade, and 200 emails and photos later, bingo.... we loaded up the car in Good ole cousin Nicks trailer (yet again) and this time headed for Texas.

Here's a guy in Texas who did a righteous frame off build on a Chevy powered 48 Plymouth business coupe. He knows he spent way too much money on the build. (Those of us who have been there know how difficult it is to get the right value out of a Mopar, compared to the Chevy and Ford equivalent.) He is now building a 64 Corvette as a driver, and wanted a "Hot-Rod something" to bang around town in, and drive to the Sunday morning donut meetings.

This guy is 6 foot a bunch and 250 some pounds. I told him "IF you got in the car at all, you won't be able to move and probably couldn't see anything." He's good with that, my kind of a guy, so.... deals on.....Another Road Trip! If we both still like each others cars once we see them in person, then it's a trade. So guess you'll know if I made a deal or not when we gather for Del Mar. I just may need some advise from you guys with Black cars on how to keep them clean. Some advise other than "leave it home", or "paint it

Remember When Farewell Party

Remember When Club held their final get-together, on Sunday March 2nd at South Mountain Park, it was the largest turn-out that they have ever had. There was a free brats and hot dog lunch for everyone. They had several games including, tennis ball out the window, slow drags, potato stabbing. The most interesting contest was the back up blindfolded, which went backwards for 100 feet. Our old racer friend Paul Nolte went 99 feet and 5 inches, he still has it in him, so he and Preston took first place. Bob & Betty Bailey were trophy king and queen taking home 2 trophies for the slow drags and the tennis ball. Jim & Jackie Councilman won the potato stabbing contest, while Jim was driving. Jackie could not drive because she had a lead foot. Page and Linda took a second place trophy. Cindy Bryant won the grand prize of a black lacquered Matco tool box. In other words, the Over The Hill Gang made out.

We really want to thank Ken & Dee for this fun time and for all their hard work over the years. Hopefully Toyz for Totz will continue on with the new club that is forming.

Everyone is invited to a party at

Paul & Judy Nolte's house

WINSLOW 2008

It's that time of the year again to make our reservations and deposits for the rooms at the La Posada Hotel for the Just Cruis'n Car Club's Standin' on the Corner Car Show in Winslow, Arizona.

The date of the Winslow show is October 3-4-5, 2008.

To secure a room for this great show, Linda needs a deposit of $50.00 per room as soon as possible. There is a two-night minimum. Also, if you have a special request, room change, etc., she needs that at the same time she receives your deposit and she will try to accommodate the request if possible. You will receive a letter of the balance due later this summer, and all funds will need to be collected after receiving that letter.

Please mail your deposit to Linda Barnes, P.O. Box 72835, Phoenix, AZ 85050.

If you have any questions, you can give her a call at (602) 354-4412.

Dear Over the Hill Gang

A BIG HUG AND THANK YOU. Once again I'm overwhelmed at how fast and how much a close club (like ours) can do. Just over a year in the club, your calls, letters, beautiful cards and short phone messages make me feel much better. A simple "Thank you " just doesn't seem enough.

When I first heard I had pancreatic cancer (which my father died from) we tried to be in contact with the club as much as we could while dealing with all that is involved. I guess we sort of went through the different phases of shock, denial, withdrawal, then I had the anxiety. I've been told it's the normal things people in my position go through, thank God I have Rick to hold me up along with great support from your encouragement, caring, patience and understanding.

We have one more chemo, and then I will be able to take a break (I've had five) after this session. At this time I am going through all the normal things we have to put up with chemo sessions (hair loss, weight loss, fatigue). Hopefully in the near future, I will see you at one of our club meetings and will tell you in person that we have a hold on this thing and now we just have to keep it under control.

At this time the mass has shrunk 10% and no new spots on the liver.

AGAIN A MERE THANK YOU DOES NOT SEEM ENOUGH

Sincerely, Jennie & Rick
New Board Members

OTHG-PHOENIX does a "number" on their new Board of Directors. Back in December, just before Christmas, I was asked to “just call all the members to see if they have an interest in running for the board for 2008.” So I did that...all eighty of them.... through the holidays, and do you know how many folks are NEVER HOME during the holidays?????! Then all I had to do was see if there were any more nominations at the January meeting. Oh, then I was to make up a ballot, get it printed; plus a signature sheet for the members to sign before they received their ballot; then get someone to help me count the ballots.... thank you’s to Prill, Sandi and Jackie; then announce the Board for 2008 at the February meeting! WHEW !! Is that all????! WELL.....NOT QUITE!

Ken and I decided to have a little fun with this!

So the February meeting announcement time came....” When I call your name, please come forward quickly.” President, BOB BAILEY! Vice president, LARRY BESORE....and on down the line. And of course, these were all called out in MY LOUDEST, SEXY VOICE!! I hope I didn’t break anyone’s eardrums. As they lined up, Ken had taken our BIG BLACK SACK and stood behind them. I called President, Bob Bailey forward. “You are the TOP HONCHO! Therefore, you should dress accordingly!” He was presented with an oversized cowboy hat, and gavel, which if pounded...would squeak, or the handle was a horn that he could blow! Next, Vice president, Larry Besore step forward. “You need to be ready...(presented with a very mini, yellow cowboy hat printed with VP) at the Drop of an Eyeball!” Yup, glasses with eyeballs on springs! Secretary, Carol Elliott, step forward. “As our Secretary, you need to take VERY DETAILED minutes, and here’s some equipment to help you!” Carol received a GIANT 18” PENCIL and a tiny pad of paper. Treasurer, Sue Elston, please step forward. “As you handle our FUNDS, you can keep them in HERE....and PROTECT them with THIS!” Sue received a cute little piggy bank and a gun that binged. Pull the trigger and “bang flag” drops down! Newsletter Editor, Judy Nolte, step forward. “Here’s our SHERLOCK HOLMES ready to TRACK DOWN the news and juicy gossip to put in print. (Was handed a magnifying glass.) BUT, you won’t EVEN SEE HER, because she’ll be INCOGNITO!!!” She also got a pair of glasses with nose, eyebrows and mustache.

And now the remaining six board members, in alphabetical order:

Manfred Wagner
Jim Stubert....well I didn’t say A to Z,
I’m doing Z to A!
Paul Nolte
Fred Elston
Jerry Elliott
Page Barnes.

Each one was given a board which read (when put together) WE’LL...ALL...WORK...TOGETHER...FOR...YOU! At the same time, I handed yellow plastic plates to the other five which read, OVER...THE...HILL...GANG...

Phx ! That’s the 2008 Board’s message to you, the members! And that concluded the installation of officers.
