Terri Besore asks:

Ok, friends and family! Here we go again! My daughter, Cindy, and I are embarking on a journey very precious and near to our hearts. Not only did we lose my mom to leukemia from her breast cancer treatment, but I lost my best friend from high school and many friends and family members of friends in the past years. We have come a very long way in new treatments, but we need to go so far as not to lose anyone to this disease. We all know someone who has or is currently fighting this battle.

Cindy and I feel this is the very least we can do (60 miles!) in support of all these wonderful, courageous women.

The 3 Day Walk for the Cure is an experience beyond words... the camaraderie, the warmth, the tears, and yes, the laughter as we walk on this path is well worth any aches and pains, blisters and fatigue we may experience. The laughs, the hugs, the new friends, the new memories made and the money raised make it all very worthwhile and rewarding!

Please join us on this adventure...think of your loved ones and friends who have been affected by breast cancer and donate in their name if you wish. We will do our best to honor your loved one and fight for their cause!

Thank you!

Love,
Terri and Cindy Besore

We are asking donators, if you could please split your donation between Terri and Cindy...it will get us to our goals quicker and on the road sooner!

Please visit The Susan G. Komen 3-Day for the Cure today!
