The Prez Sez:

Hot enough for you?? Yep pretty sure I have things melting in the garage.

I tried to do a few things the other day and by 1 PM it was not fun any longer. My cooler works for awhile but when it's 115 forget it!

So I'm laying low until the weather improves a bit. Time to make some plans for when it's cooler. We have a lot of activities in Sept - Oct - Nov to get ready for.

The board has been discussing some easy putts and get-togethers. Think we'll try a restaurant putt soon, be looking for that. We also have a few garage tours/get together planned. We also will have some guest speakers in the months ahead. So rest up while it's warm and well get some things planned to do soon.

There's a group just home from back to the 50's, and another just getting ready to head out for Pleasanton. So they will have some stories to share with us.

Brenda and I took a 4 day run and visited the Sequoia National park a week or so ago.

If you haven't been there it's something you should do. The park area is really beautiful and the Sequoias are awe inspiring. Some of them are over 2000 years old. I guesstimated one of those big trees was good for about 150 woodies. Very cool! We spent the first night of the trip in Visalia Calif, and toured the park the next day. Then we drove to Fresno to see a 1951 Ford. The drive was neat, saw things we hadn't seen before. The car was not so good!

After spending the night in Fresno, we drove to Laughlin for a night there, just to round out the trip. All in all a great road trip and we sure kept busy.

OK... Good Guys is just around the corner. I'm into the tour planning and could use a spot around the Deer Valley area. Let me know if you have an idea of a place there that would make a good stop for the tour. Lunch is being planned at Desert Valley Wrecking Yard, so I need another stop in the area to hit first. Let me know if you have an idea.

Thanks
Da Prez
