"VP Says"

Payson 2014

Well we started strong...The gang and the cousins met up on Friday morning at the Fountain Hills Starbucks. Brenda and I were joined by cousins Jeff and Vicky, Nick and Deb, my brother Steve – and Paul and Judy, Dave Bennett, Ron and Jan, Ken and Dee, Ross and Ellen, Alan and Cheryl, and from TSRA Tony and Jeannine Cruze. Great group, and a colorful parade as we headed up the hill to Payson. Weather was very nice and the run to Payson was un-eventful. Oh maybe not... Steve found at the casino that he was missing his OTHG plaque, license plate, license plate frame and light. We figured the the plaque, which was attached by chain to license plate, blew around enough to work the bolt loose holding the license and everything went on the road. Confirmed during discussion by some who saw "stuff" in the road, but didn't know it was ours. Had breakfast at the casino, some of us registered for our rooms, and then we headed for the show registration. Weather is still good, enjoying the slightly cooler temps at this time.

After registration we scattered for our respective motels. Dave took the tear drop to his RV lot. Some came back for parade and burger burn, the cousins, Steve, Brenda and I hit the casino and had dinner there. Along about now the group thinned out. Ross came down with a bug and stayed in the motel hugging the commode. Sometime between dinner and breakfast Paul and Judy went back to the valley.

After breakfast we went to get the cars and meet for the show. Humm... colder this morning, windy, and a lot of dark clouds. No line up this year for entry we drove right in; Brenda and I, Steve (cuz Nick rode in with Steve in the roadster) Jeff and Vic, Tony and Jeanine, Dave Bennett and parked. Ken and Dee, Alan and Cheryl, Ron and Jan were a little later. Now the wind was getting real, and it was raining. Yep it was COLD. We huddled under the ramada which was a wind tunnel, but reasonably dry. Made a pass at voting, there were less than a hundred cars there. Rain was off and on light then pretty strong. We were deciding what to do when Ron and Jan said they were going home. Turned out that was a good call. It got real cold and we all sat in the cars shivering...then.... It started snowing, then slush, then hail, then snow again. OK We give up, we were ready to go back to motel when Alan said they had called the show, and would call those who got trophies.

Good Idea...we scattered to hunker down at motels. Everybody chilled (pun intended) and just hung out for the rest of the day. We really enjoyed Tony and Jeanine, they are our kind of people.

Sunday morning I couldn't get the car doors open (electric). Figured something got wet and blew fuze? Nick, Steve, Jeff and Tony got the jumpers and we got the door working that way. Couldn't find anything blown but they still don't work...Checking further. I'm not kidding YA shoulda been there !
