"First Lady Writes"

Wow, what a whirlwind March has been. Keeping busy sure makes the days go by quickly. Not only was I busy with the gang but with Uncle Sam also. I did all my gathering of information, used Turbo Tax to record it, only to find that I would be better off taking a standard deduction. That happened last year, too, but I do not have the confidence not to list everything and just go ahead and take the deduction.

The other was busyness with the gang and certainly far more enjoyable. Good Guys has become a March regular now since it was deemed successful. I was sorry I got the punies and missed all the action this year but I do know that Ron spent most of his time in the swap meet which he said did fairly well.

Next event on the calendar was the nostalgia drags at Wild Horse Motor Sports Park (formerly Firebird Raceway.) That was a fun day. Approximately 25 OTHG members were present. Alan Mitchell, Page Barnes, Charlie Cover, Bob Bailey, Paul Nolte and Dave Bertram put their cars through the paces. Also, Manfred Wagner drove one of Page's cars. Alan was the only one who was running in true competition with Camnoxious, a sixties-era gasser. He did very well for not having been behind the wheel of a dragster in a long time. He won his first two runs but lost his third by one-tenth of a second. Nice going, Alan. The Mitchell's put on a buffet of cold cuts and cookies for us. A mighty big thanks to them.

In the mini-bike competition, Ron Olmstead and Larry Besore were the only entrants. Ron came in first but they both came home with trophies. I overheard Larry saying that he only came out to run so Ron would have someone to beat. All in all, a fun day.

This last weekend was Over the Hill Gang Scottsdale's car show at Schnepf's Farms located in Queen Creek. Nice place with lots of shade. The 50-50 was almost 1100 for the winner and the other half went to Hospice of the Valley. I was pleased because I got to sit next to Glenna Williams and out of the 8 tickets I purchased, I won twice making my investment quite good. I didn't win the big ticket items as I had hoped but I usually don't win a thing so I was happy. It must have been because I rubbed shoulders with

Sunday, we travelled to Casa Grande and met with some of the Tucson Street Rod Association to have a Sunday dinner of pot roast and songs with Marty Haggard, the son of Merle Haggard. He sang songs by many well-known western singers and told a little history of life with his father. It was all quite interesting.

We waved goodbye to our guests and thanked them for coming, something we have had much practice by doing so at Good Guys all these years. Yes, March kept us busy and busy keeps us young so I've been told. April, here we come.

As always, Jan

GOOD-GUYS MARCH (SPRING) NATIONALS 2014 article by the VP

Last months Good-Guys Spring nationals was of course a great success. Why? Because of all your hard work and efforts over the 3 day show. Great jobs by everyone, gates, parking, awards, waving goodbye, Saturdays Buffet, (if you enjoyed the buffet give Linda and Page a thank you) everything was handled with picture book perfection. Traffic was flowing better than in November, still not perfect but better. Not much we can do about that except keep the gates flowing like we always do. Parking was a little confusing at first but we quickly recovered and smoothed it out. I believe it's safe to say we had over 2200 cars. More than last march. It didn't seem like it but we had 50 feet mote room up top this year. They also lined the rows and that kept the field nicely organized. We parked them on top pretty orderly, and that always helps.

as the host club measurement across the nation.

This year's tour on Thursday was a bit different. We got some conversation and letters to Good-Guys about the distance we travelled last November. Guess a lot of folks thought it was extreme. Also the usual complaints about traffic and left turns...can't do much about that. Phoenix has a lot of traffic, and we have to turn left now and then. So we shorten it down for March. The stops were all well received and enjoyed, I believe by most if not everyone. Street Rods by Auto Art served a spectacular lunch again this year. We had Southwest Street Rod folks helping with the lunch stop parking and that went very well. There wasn't a sponsored dinner, but 5 and Diner had a nice kick off party with discounted meals and a live band. I saw a lot of cars coming and going but I think they had a steady 30 or so cars most of the evening. Don't think we need change much for November, same drill just more cars.

I'm very proud to be associated with you people, you always make it happen, you fill in when needed and just cope with and manage what ever they throw at us. Thank you! It's no wonder that Good-Guys use us

Thanks again for everything you do I appreciate it and more importantly Good-Guys honestly appreciates our club immensely. Hey we even got a raise this year!

OTHG SCOTTSDALE SHOW article by Charlie Cover

On Saturday, March 29, thirty club members met early at the slab to head for the show. It was a bit nippy in the roadster, and that hot cup of Micky D's coffee was sure good. Maybe I should have worn my "big boy pants"? We took off right on time, give or take a minute or two. 19 good looking hot rods on the road sure are fun to see. We all stayed together pretty good, driving through the thriving metropolis of Gilbert. We managed to lose no one with a left turn at Queen Creek Road and on to the show. The Scottsdale club had saved us a good spot in the trees, and with an additional 3 club cars that met us we had a total of 21 club cars at the show! It was not long before they announced that they were serving pancakes. What a feed, those babies hung over the plate on all sides. The morning went fast looking at cars and doing all the other stuff Schnepf Farms had to offer. At 1:30 they drew tickets for the prizes. Ron won twice, bagging some free dinners and a gift certificate to SoCal. Darryl won a nice tool set. The 50/50 drawing was over $1000 but none of us won. Two club members did win a top 10 pick, Dave in his Pontiac and Mike and Jean in their Chevy. Congrats!
