The Prez Sez:

Well, it looks like things are finally starting to happen. The Payson Invasion is happening on October 10. If you haven't registered, do it today. It's a one-day event and a whole bunch of us are going. Let's have a big turnout from the OTHG-Phoenix!

Next on the event list is a long-awaited breakfast putt, October 17, at Rudy's Bar-B-Q, 11:00; so, it's more of a lunch. We will be safely tucked away in our own private room. If you feel compromised, please feel free to stay home. Everyone will understand. For the rest of us...let's

P-A-R-T-Y!!

I totally understand playing it safe during these trying times but my days on this good earth are numbered and I for one will not waste one more of them in self-imposed solitary confinement.

Let's all start to live again. See you Virtually at the meeting.

Ron

Meet Dale (Jud) and Joni Judkins:

Hello everybody, please allow me to introduce myself. I'm Jud Judkins. Now I know you all are going to find this funny, but I'm also from North Dakota...Before you groan and say, oh no, another one...Let me assure you I'm well behaved. Since I'm up for approval, please don't hold that against me.

Let me tell you a little bit about myself. I live in Glendale, Arizona with my wife Joni. No, my wife is not from ND; she's a Kentucky girl. When we first met, I thought she was from Kulm. Not so lucky; I think she's a relative of the McCoy Clan...don't tell her I said that or back to the sofa, again. We've been married for over 50 years and she is a saint. By now, I think you know why. We raised 4 great kids with no question that they take after their mother.

I'm semi-retired, and work as a Security Guard...love to wake up the community where I work with my Hotrod. My car is a 1931 Chevy Hotrod with a small-block Chevy hooked up to a 6-speed transmission. I have a TCI front end with disk brakes, rack and pinion steering, with coil over shocks and a 4-link rear end. My car is painted black, and I have the headliner, carpets, and door panels to do, and then she's finished.

I feel it a privilege becoming a member of the club.
