This and That...

REMINDER: There will be NO business meeting in July!!

Cruz'n The Rim, Show Low, AZ

I left Friday morning, May 31st, at 10:00 for Show Low. Betty couldn't make it because of a family graduation celebration on Saturday, so we decided to divide and conquer. When I got to Payson to gas up, I ran into Dave and Anne Bennett and their friends. Dave said he was going to run 55 mph to Show Low, but I never saw him again...maybe his 55 mph and mine are not the same??

I got to Show Low at 1:00 p.m. and went to Registration, then the Best Western Painted Pony Motel. This was a very nice motel, about $100/night...must make a note for next time. On Saturday morning I had a very good breakfast at the motel and got to the show about 7:15 a.m. I saved a spot for Paul and Judy, and half an hour later Conrad and Michelle arrived and said they had saved five spaces but I guess I did not get the memo. Charlie and Danise came but didn't have a car because they were spending time up at their cabin and didn't bring their hot rod because of the dirt road...we all know how that goes, right? Steve Besore and Dave Bennett parked in the "correct" aisle, and Paul and Judy parked next to me. Conrad brought an EZ-Up and we all huddled under that.

I ran into some past OTHG-Phoenix members. Some of you may know Tom Noble and Jim and Janice Hahn. It's been a long time since I've seen them, and it was good to catch up. Tom came to take a look at Larry Besore's new Studebaker because he has a Studebaker truck, but no Larry; maybe next time. Of course, there was Art Bans...a Show Low local.

The 50/50 was $1500 for half, but none of our members won. Award winners were Dave Bennett's '37 Caddy, Steve Besore's '51 Chevy pick-up, and the Monroes' '56 Dodge wagon got two awards! Congratulations to the winners!!

Five members and their cars were at the show: Bennetts and their Caddy, Besores and their truck, Monroes and their station wagon, Noltes and their '39 Ford, and yours truly with my '40 Ford. Of course, we wouldn't be the OTHG-Phoenix if there wasn't food involved, so after the show we all went to dinner at the Bison Golf Club, and a great time was had by all!

Ya shudda been there!

Bob B.

Thank you to Jim and Carol Dalton for hosting last month's breakfast putt at the Soul Café in Scottsdale. It was a beautiful day for a drive and very pleasant on the patio. There were 35 people in attendance. The service was efficient and friendly, the food was delicious, and the company was fun! And...just in case you have a pooch in your family, this restaurant also welcomes dogs at breakfast in the patio area, complete with a doggie menu! We need to take Speedy for breakfast some day.

Share Your Photos—Message from Conrad Monroe:

Smart phones with excellent cameras and cloud storage have made photo sharing a breeze, as compared to what it was in the past. Several club members have been sharing photos and comments to our Facebook page with excellent results. Unfortunately, many of our members do not care for social media, in particular, Facebook. Our club website offers a safer alternative for sharing our activities and adventures.

If you can share your photos with me along with a short narrative as to the Who, What, Why and When, I can easily organize them and upload them to our web server.

If you have an iCloud account: https://support.apple.com/kb/ph12068?locale=en_US

To share with me you can use my Conrad@cmonroe.net email account, or text me at 480-220-2006.

It really is pretty easy to do, and would be enjoyed by our members...If you run into any problems, contact one of your grandkids; they have stuff like this down pat...
