The Prez Sez:

Hey gang; we are closing in on the March version of our Good-Guy show. If last March, and last November are indicators, we should have a big show again.

The Scottsdale venue is a popular one, and the spring event seems to have caught on well.

I don't expect any big changes in the set-up. Friday is free for all parking; anyone can park anywhere unless Good-Guys have it closed off. Like maybe the area where they will set-up the Autocross course.

Don't forget the spring show they do run the autocross. It will be set-up on the West end of the tent, and then taken down Sat night to set-up for the awards in that same location on Sunday. All special parking will be on top again. Exact locations won't be known until Friday probably.

The tour seems to have settled in; aside from some expected parking challenges the tour should be a good one. We got an offer for a complimentary lunch stop at Hughes Performance. Even though we were at Hughes a year ago, we took the offer.

Drew's garage may just be the Kick-Off stop from now on. He's making noises like he would want to do that. I sure won't say no if that's what he wants to do. The other stops will provide some interest to most, everyone won't love every stop.

Remember the F1 racing stop will be 2 hours or so. They will choose 20 people and have a race off to determine a tour champion.

As you know Good-Guys established a rule last year where everyone attending the good-Guy shows must be members. This hasn't been the most popular ruling, but never the less it's in effect. They didn't push that with the host clubs until this year, we only have/had a few. San Diego for example had nearly 1/2 the work staff as non-members. All host clubs are working to conform. Enough said on that.

Welcome to our new batch of officers and board members; we do have a few new faces and that's sure a good sign. We should have a productive year and maybe come up with some new ideas for you all to chew over.

A few of us...read as very few of us... made the run over to Chandler for their downtown show. The area is nice, plenty of places to eat, interesting $ore$. I didn't buy anything except food. There was a pretty good turn out, but not as big as last year. Didn't seem to be as many vendors also. Cousin Nick was out sporting a new set of Foose wheels on the new sedan delivery. (Did he hit the lotto or something?) Also at the show were; Jack Crockett and Frank Svancara, Barry McGilvra, Nick and Deb Bacon, Brenda and I.

I saw Steve Bryant wandering around, and Barney Wilkins also.

The wooden car didn't have any brake lights so Nick and Deb had to snug up so I didn't get hit. I used some creative hand signals to keep cuz Nick aware of my intentions.

I had to replace the inline (pressure activated) switch, that's 2 since I have owned the car. Something isn't right with that!!!

Ya Shoulda Been there!
